

Com. Warden and Recorder.
Handy Andy sometimes draws a long bow—as, for instance, “You talk here of a sharp wind, but the wind is so sharp there that it will cut off your beard and whiskers. Boreas is a great barber, sir, with his North pole for a sign. Then as for frost! I could tell you of such incredible things of intensity; our butter, for instance, was as hard as a rock,—we were obliged to knock it off with a chisel and hammer, like a mason at a piece of granite, and it was necessary to be careful of your breakfast, the splinters used to fly about so; indeed, one of the party did lose the use of his eye from a butter splinter. But the oddest thing of all was to watch two men standing talking to each other; you could observe the words as they came out of their mouths, suddenly frozen and dropping down in little pellets of ice at their feet, so that after a long conversation, you might see a man standing up to his knees in his own eloquence.”

The editor of the New York Tribune, a leading whig paper, exclaims:
“It is the hour of darkness to the whig party and its champions.”

MARRIED.

On Thursday last, by John Wylie, Esq. Mr. ISAAC BOWEN of Arkansas to Miss JANE E. CAMPBELL of this township.
